EASTER PARADE

Many thanks to the students and parents who joined in the fun, decorated the ute and paraded in the Easter Saturday Rice Bowl Festival.

A fun time was had by all and the kids had a great community experience.

COMMONWEALTH BANK

Representatives from the Commonwealth Bank will talk to our students this Monday morning about the importance of saving.

YEAR 6 to LEETON HIGH

Our Year 6 students will begin an 8 week block this Wednesday afternoon.

SCHOOL CROSS COUNTRY

Friday, May 4
McCaughey Park, Yanco
First race at 2.00pm.
All students, K/6, will participate.
Parents are encouraged to attend.

CANTEEN

Open next week -
Monday and Thursday.

ANZAC DAY

Nearly half of our school marched on Wednesday in the Leeton Anzac March. In what has become Australia's most important community day, our school representatives lay wreaths at both the Leeton and Yanco ceremonies.

Thanks to all who participated and to the staff who organised our students.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Jenny Thomas, Liz Harrison and Rachael McClymont will be at Parkview this Wednesday, 1.00pm to 4.00pm, to begin training in teaching students with speech difficulties.

Mrs Sgroi will take K/1/2 students and Mr McGrath will have Years 3/4/5 on Wednesday afternoon.

NUPTIALS

Congratulations to Liz and Dave on their wedding during the holidays. Both are still buzzing after a holiday in the U.S. and all reports indicate that Dave made a very handsome groom (although it must be said he was slightly overshadowed by the bride!).

The whole Yanco community wish Liz and Dave every happiness for the future.

Terry McGrath, Principal.

AWARD WINNERS

The following children received awards at the School Assembly today [April 27]:

Jed for writing his name on his own. Great work!

Trevor for trying hard in all his work.

Joshua Miners for settling well into Y.P.S. routine.

Sonny Ekin for great work in class.

Joel for working well in class.
