Dear Parents and Carers,

What an absolutely amazing time Alaree Tabain, Leelan Sainsbury-Eyles, Mr Powter and I had in Sydney on Sunday and Monday for the Young Leaders conference. It was a fantastic experience for our school captains, a trip jam packed trip with loads of activities and fun! I would like to thank our School Captains for their outstanding behaviour and making the journey so much fun. I hope you enjoy reading through their Young Leaders Conference report included in next week's newsletter.

Riverina Swimming Carnival

Well done to Leelan Sainsbury-Eyles, Asha Dunn, Taylor Griffiths and Dakoda Cross for your efforts over the last few weeks preparing yourselves for yesterday's Riverina swimming carnival in Albury. Thank you to parents and carers for taking the time out to prepare and transport your child to the event.

In dance we have been doing different stretches and learning how to become more flexible. We also have been learning how to do different dances like the nutbush, cotton eye Joe, the cha cha slide and the cupid shuffle. We do some fitness dances and try not to stop for the whole song. We have lots of fun and like learning new things.
