News from the Chaplain

Hello Everyone.

It's great to see the students playing outside in the lovely weather this week.

The students have been busy practising their kicking skills, discovering pests in the garden or busy digging trenches near the cricket pitch. There is even an idea that they could dig to China to say hello and then return to school. We will have to wait and see if this happens.

Have a great week and enjoy this great weather

Mrs Strachan

People Eat Too Much Junk Food Today
The fact is that people eat too much junk food today. Others must agree that junk food causes addiction diseases and health issues.

Firstly, I believe that people have addictive behaviours all the time. I am absolutely certain that there is no energy in junk food. It is clear that it will make you feel fatigued and you will put on weight.

Secondly, another reason that you should stop eating junk food is that you get diseases from all of it.

Mother's Day: The Little Learners made flower pot artworks using their handprints for their mums or special women in their lives for Mother's Day.

Some children chose to make their handprints with paint while others traced their hand with texta.

The Little Learners also made 'I love you to pieces' artworks by cutting and tearing paper to stick on a heart shape with glue. All of the children were excited to use their scissor skills to create beautiful masterpieces for those they love!

New role play centre: While our Café kitchen continues to be popular, we have also seen the addition of a new role play centre – the Vet! The Little Learners were eager to treat the 'patients' using band aids, bandages, medicine and the x-ray machine.

The Three Little Pigs': The Little Learners looked at the story of 'The Three Little Pigs' last week. Mrs Kroek read the story while the children helped to act it out with little puppets and props. A popular part of this role play was when Mrs Kroek put a picture of a wolf on top of a hair dryer and used it to blow the houses down! The 'Little Learners' made an artwork of the three houses using paper (straw house), paddle pop sticks (stick house) and red pieces of paper (brick house).

Other things Mrs Kroek and Mrs Strachan have noticed over the past two weeks:

Max has really been enjoying the creation station. Last week he used stickers to create a masterpiece to take home.

Azalea and Genevieve were very responsible when collecting eggs from the school chickens. Azalea and Kruze were also fantastic line leaders, leading the Little Learners safely through the playground.

Genevieve and Lacey were eager to play with the fairy princess garden and it is no wonder as they both came to Little Learners wearing stunning crowns!

Zeke continues to enjoy all the toy tractors, cars, and trains. He always uses beautiful manners when asking for toys up in the high shelves.

George is always smiling and the dinosaur play set continues to be a big hit with him.

Evie has enjoyed dressing up, transforming into characters like Elsa from 'Frozen'.

James was keen to try out the abacus last week and particularly liked acting out 'The Three Little Pigs'. He really loved pretending to be the big bad wolf and blow the houses down!

Kruze, George and Blayne worked beautifully together to build towers with blocks.

Sage was very creative when he decided to make towers with recycled containers and coloured paddle pop sticks.

Bella and Hettie were a great team while they worked together to create a pretend garden with artificial flowers in the play tray.

Charlie was beyond thrilled to show everyone how he was able to cut paper after practising with scissors at the 'creation station'.

Thanks for reading about all the wonderful things the Little Learners have been up to!
