Yanco Public School.....Towards a better world

Mrs Taylor is currently on leave so there is no Principal's Report for this newsletter. We would like to thank you all for your continued support and wish everyone a happy and restful holiday break. Term 4 commences on Monday, 8th October for students and staff.

Water Fun Afternoon

Permission notes were sent home with students on Wednesday for tomorrow's water fun afternoon to celebrate the end of term. Please return tomorrow if you have not already. Students may wear casual clothes for the day and will need swimming clothes, thongs, a towel, sunscreen and a school hat. Please ensure all items are labelled

K.1 NEWS

Our young learners in K/1 have been buzzing with excitement and productivity as the term nears an end.

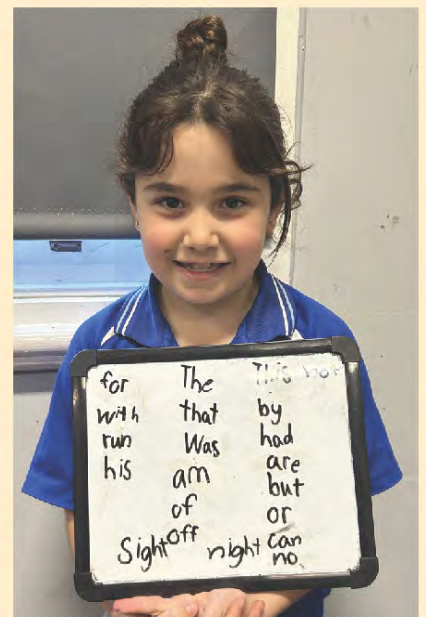

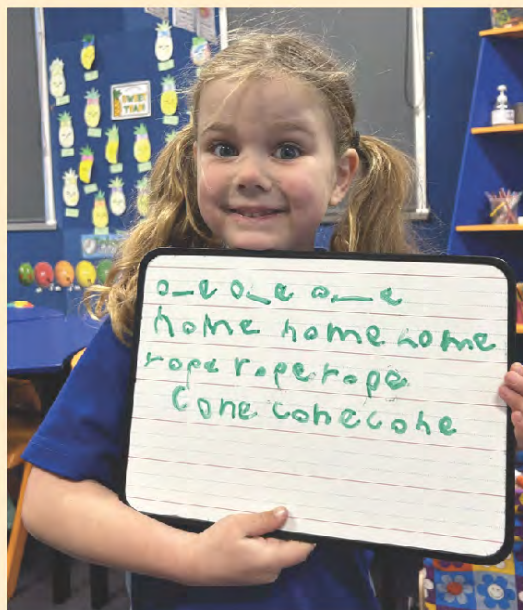

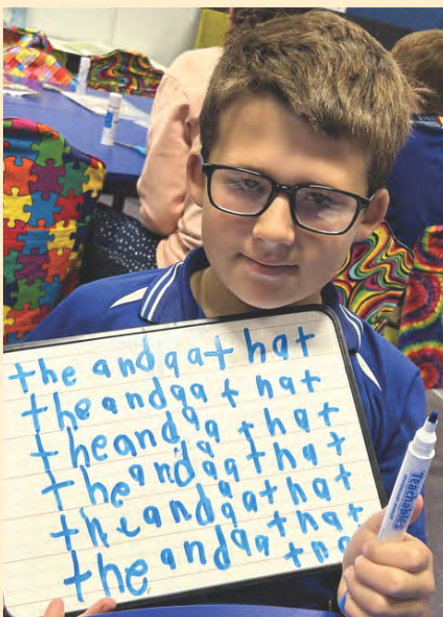

In literacy, they've been working on their sight words and expanding their phonics skills. It's been great watching their writing develop, as they have been working on adjectives.

Over the past few weeks in mathematics, K/1 have been diving into many concepts such as mass, capacity and data. They have been making great progress, which has been awesome to see.

In addition to the literacy and numeracy, our K/1 class have been using their creativity to work on some great artwork pieces to enter into the upcoming Leeton Show.
